National Horse Show Once More Will Hold Forth in Historic Madison Square Garden Next Saturday Afternoon

MISS MADDISON, 13, WILL RIDE IN JUMPING EVENTS

Little Girl From Greenwich sure to Create Stir at Horse Show.

JUDGE MOORE BRINGS MANY HORSES HERE

A tarteen-year-old miss who rides jumpers with phenomenal skill will handle the hunters of Percy A. Rockefeller and Charles D. Lanier at the National Horse Show, which opens at Madison Square Garden next Saturday afternoon. She is little Miss Ivy Maddison of Green. wich, Conn., who made a sensational tebut us a rider in competitions at the Westchester County Horse Show at Gedney Farm last month.

in one of the competitions at White Plains Miss Ivy rode six hunters over the jumps in their turn and she won three of the four prizes, including the blue ribbon. The next day Miss Ivy repeated this unusual feat with the same borses, taking the first, second and third prizes, everything but the "H. C." ribban. Alexander Gemmell, George Waton and many other experienced horsemen pronounced the schoolgirl's exhibition the most brillian; they had ever seen at a show.

Miss lvy is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Maddison of the Greenwich Riding and Driving Club. By going to the Westchester County Horse Show Mise by snapped her fingers at the health egulations in force during the infantile paralysis scare, and she had to undergo a quarantine of two weeks before re-
